

Donna Kay Miller

Licensed Massage Therapist, Massage Therapy Instructor, Certified Medical Massage Practitioner

Since the young age of 8 years old, I have had a passion for Massage therapy and Teaching.

I gave massages to family and friends, as this was something I loved to do to help others.

Teaching those I worked on about the body just came second nature to me.

People started to notice my skills and encouraged me in 2003 to pursue a Massage License.

My world changed in a positive way after this.

I was now able to provide an office for my massage therapy and started teaching other LMTs my techniques.

I felt a bigger need to teach and became a Licensed Massage Instructor soon after.

I wrote 6 Continuing Education Classes and started teaching these curriculums to other LMT's.

After this milestone, I felt the need to teach people from the beginning about massage and wrote the required 500-hour curriculum, applied for a school license and opened RMTRW Massage school.

To this date I have taught over 28 classes since opening.

I have also traveled all over Texas, New Mexico and even Las Vegas to teach my Continuing Education Classes to over 500 massage Therapist from 2016 to 2018

I have flown all over the world receiving different types of massages and experiencing different high-end spas and know some of best places to experience a relaxing day spa setting.
